

The master's degree program of Global Public Administration and Policy
120 credits

Language	English
The program is realized by	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Grigol Robakidze University (Georgia) ➤ French National School Of Administration (ENA)
The qualification is given by	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Grigol Robakidze University (Georgia) ➤ National School of Administration (ENA) and the University of Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne

Qualification:

* Master of Public Administration (by Grigol Robakidze University, Georgia)

* Master of Public Administration and International Relations (French National School Of Administration)

Code	Name
GPA 201 C	Theories of state – modern approaches and evaluation
GPA 202 C	Importance of international organizations in modern globalization conditions
GPA 203C	The modern state, good governance
GPA 204 C	Practical aspects of public servant's professional ethics
GPA 205 C	State responsibility
GPA 206 C	Economic analysis of the public law
GPA 207 C	The political economy of sustainable energetics
UNI 201 C	Communication
UNI 202 C	Research methods
Optional - earning at least 15 credits is mandatory
GPA 208 E	The policy and practice of human rights
GPA 209 E	Peaceful ways of solving the interstate disputes and international justice
GPA 210 E	Diplomatic, consular law
GPA 211 E	International customs law

GPA 212 E	Comperative administrative law
GPA 213 E	European Human Rights Standards
GPA 214 E	Analysis of investments in the public sector
GPA 215 E	Energy management
The French “Ecole Nationale d’Administration” (ENA) and the University Paris 1 Pantheon-Sorbonne Programme. PUBLIC GOVERNANCE AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS. ECTS 60
1.	Analysis of specific cases and summary paper
2.	Constitutional and administrative institutions
3.	Regional and local governance and local development
4.	Administrative law and budget management
5.	HR and management
6.	French language
7.	Global governance and international challenges
8.	The diplomatic service
9.	Communication and diplomacy
10.	European affairs
11.	Method and tutoring for the research paper
12.	Assistance to the preparation